

Articles Submission

1. "Książnica Śląska" accepts exclusively materials that have not been published before. The original papers, source materials, reviews, and reports may be submitted to the e-mail address: ksiaznica.slaska@bs.katowice.pl.
2. The editors conduct a preliminary evaluation of the submitted material, and if accepted, the text is assessed by two reviewers (preserving confidentiality).
3. The authors are informed about the results of the review process. They receive access to the review form and obtain an opportunity to respond to the reviewers' comments.
4. The editors reserve the right to introduce the following interventions in the text (after consultation with the author): stylistic and punctuation corrections, abbreviations in the texts of papers, and including or editing footnotes.
5. Acceptance of the text for publication means the Author's consent to its publication.
6. The article should be edited according to the editorial guidelines (follow Editorial Guidelines.) and bear the affiliation and ORCID number. The contributor submits a prepared statement that the work represents an authentic work and that the copyrights of others have not been infringed (author's statement) and validates a license agreement.
7. The author equally prepares an abstract in English (about 1200 characters with spaces), keywords (5), and a bibliography (in alphabetical order), possibly illustrative material (jpg or tiff files, minimum resolution 300 dpi).

