

Digital Libraries

Digital libraries (both Polish and foreign) offer high quality digital collections for online access, including books, journals, iconographies, ephemeral prints, maps, photos and multimedia. The use of a special search system enables the use of different strategies (e.g. type of resource, author or subject) to find digital publications. Digitised cultural heritage resources are publicly available and free of charge to users.