

Other Branches

The library departments, located in all three buildings, organise and conduct various cultural and educational activities for all groups of recipients, like children, adolescents, adults, seniors, and people with disabilities and special needs. They realise cycles of events or one-off events, often in cooperation with other cultural units or personalities from the world of culture and science.

---