

Lending Department

Books may be borrowed by adults enrolled in the library and by persons over 13 years of age with the guarantee of a parent or legal guardian (parent's or legal guardian's presence is required, as well as presenting to the staff ID cards of the parent/legal guardian and the minor). In all other cases, the collections can be used on site in the reading rooms.

What are the conditions for borrowing books?

- books are ordered electronically to the Lending Department, through terminals located in the library, as well as online through the individual user account,
- orders placed an hour before the closing of the Lending Department are carried out the next day,
- books not collected from the Lending Department within 4 days are sent back to storerooms,
- books may be borrowed only upon presentation of a valid library card. The owner of the library card is responsible for all loans made with their card.

What is the library's borrowing limit?

- the holder of a library card is entitled to borrow 10 volumes for a period of 4 weeks,
- students, doctoral students and scholars (including foreign) of higher education institutions who have concluded a cooperation agreement with the Silesian Library, after submitting the document indicated in the agreement, are entitled to borrow 10 volumes for a period of 4 weeks,
- researchers, who have presented a document certifying their status as a university researcher, are entitled to borrow 20 volumes for a period of 8 weeks,

- foreigners are entitled to borrow 2 volumes for a period of 4 weeks.

The deadline for returning borrowed books can be extended four times, if they have not been reserved by other readers. Returns are accepted at the Lending Department (the 24-hour return of books is also possible through the book drop box).

An extension can be made no later than the due date for returning the books:

- through an individual user's online account,
