

Regional bibliography

„Bibliografia Śląska” (Bibliography of Silesia) includes materials for years 1960–1989 and is available both in printed and digital versions.

Regional bibliography listing materials for the region including old voivodeships (existing in years 1975–1998):

- Bielsko-Biala,
- Częstochowa,
- Jelenia Góra,
- Katowice,
- Legnica,
- Opole,
- Wałbrzych,
- Wrocław.

„Bibliography of Silesia” is a selected subject bibliography. It includes lists of books, brochures, periodicals (newspapers, magazines, scientific journals) special items (maps, graphics, grey literature) and articles from periodicals as well as chapters from the books.

„Bibliography of the Silesian Voivodeship” is a continuation of the „Bibliography of Silesia”. It records literature on the Silesian Voivodeship (województwo śląskie), which was created on January 1, 1999. Up to now there have been published yearbooks from 1999 to 2002, which are available in printed and digital form. Bibliographic records of year 2003 and next years have been systematically included and are available in the database Regional Bibliography.

Bibliography of Silesia for years 1960–1989

Bibliography of the Silesian Voivodeship 1999–2002

Current Bibliography of the Silesian Voivodeship since 2006

The database Regional Bibliography is available at the site: bibliografia.bs.katowice.pl and it has been systematically updated with bibliographic records by the Silesian Library since 1998.